HYAKUDAN KAIDAN was built in 1935 and is the only wooden building still existing in the hotel, reminding the visitors of its founding time. In 2009, it was designated as a Tangible Cultural Asset of Tokyo. The building has been hosting various exhibitions in recent years and is so-called “Temple of Art”, lead by the Japanese-style painting by Master Kiyokata Kaburaki and Jippo Araki, and many sculptures, architecture, craftworks by renowned artists. Celebrating this special year of 90th Anniversary of the hotel, we are proud to present this exhibition to showcase the charms of this HYAKUDAN KAIDAN building itself.

During this event, we will demonstrate a whole new way of providing commentary on paintings, architecture, and sculptures by using Motion Graphics. Also, we will show a short movie set in the hotel, which will be released during the Hotel Gajoen Tokyo's event "A MUSEUM HOTEL of JAPAN BEAUTY", to be held on 15 November in Paris, France. In addition to the regular daytime exhibition, the venue will be open in the evenings on Fridays and Saturdays as the "Night Museum". The guests at the Night Museum will receive a drink ticket which can be redeemed in hotel restaurants. As always, photo shooting is welcome in all area.
